RUSSIAN AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE

An elective course offered by the Center of Russian as a Foreign Language

Olga Eremina,

The Center of Russian as a foreign language,

Director, oeiremina@hse.ru

Who is this course for and what does it cover?

The course is for students with DIFFERENT LEVELS OF RUSSIAN (from elementary to advanced)

Elementary level:

- Russian pronunciation and intonation,
- basic grammar structures,
- everyday Russian constructions and vocabulary.

Intermediate/upper-intermediate level

- review of Russian pronunciation, intonation,
- systematic review of grammar,
- building up vocabulary for different speech situations,
- working on fluency.

Advanced level

- special topics (based on demand) such as Russian in Business and Mass Media, Russian Grammar through Literature, Film and Acting, Communicative Grammar etc.

COURSE DURATION:

the full course is two modules (one semester) long; it includes 10 contact hours a week, total of 144 contact hours (6 credits).

One 6-credit elective course in Russian is paid by HSE and free of charge for the students.

If you already took the course but would like to continue taking Russian – you are welcome to do so!

Be aware, however, that this will be an additional course, so a tuition fee applies.

The classes will take place at DIFFERENT LOCATIONS!

Most groups will have classes at the Faculty of Humanities on Saraya Basmannaya, 21/4, Building 1.

You can get there from 3 different metro stations: Kurskaya, Komsomolskaya, and Krasnyje Vorota. Choose the route you like the best, using the map here:

You can do the PLACEMENT TEST on-line (you received an invitation to do so when you are registered as an exchange student of HSE) or in person.

After your level of Russian is determined you can join a group of your level and start the classes. The Russian classes will start on January 14.

If you need to schedule the test in person, please contact the director of the Center of Russian as a Foreign Language at oeamina@hse.ru

Why this course?

Living in a foreign country is a unique and extremely valuable experience.

This experience is impossible without getting some knowledge of the language and culture of the country.

Regardless of your program or duration of your stay in Russia the course in Russian will make it even more efficient!
