A watercolor illustration of a city street scene. In the background, a tall, yellowish-brown building with a gabled roof stands on the left. To its right is a multi-story building with a bridge-like structure connecting it to another building on the right. The bridge has a series of windows. Below the bridge are two arched openings. In the foreground, there are several cars parked along the street. Two figures are walking on the sidewalk near the bridge. The overall style is soft and artistic, with a muted color palette.

A watercolor illustration of a university courtyard. The scene features multi-story red brick buildings with many windows. Bare trees are scattered throughout the courtyard. In the foreground, a few students are visible: one sitting on a bench on the left, and others walking or standing in the courtyard. The overall style is soft and artistic, with a muted color palette.

A stylized, hand-drawn illustration of a multi-story building, likely a residential or institutional structure in Moscow. The building features a light beige facade with numerous windows, some with white frames and others with dark frames. The roof is green with several dormer windows. The drawing style is sketchy and artistic, with visible lines and a soft color palette. The building is set against a light background with some bare tree branches visible on the right side.

The background is white and decorated with various geometric elements. There are three large, light blue circles with a fine diagonal line pattern. Each of these circles has a smaller, solid light blue circle in the center, which is surrounded by a thick, dark purple ring. Scattered around these are several smaller triangles: some are green, some are yellow, and some are red. There are also larger, solid dark blue triangles. The overall style is modern and playful.
