

Guidelines for Foreign Persons Crossing the Russian-Belarusian Border

1. Please note that entry of foreign citizens into the Russian Federation, transiting (with a transfer) via the Republic of Belarus is possible only via air. Crossing of the Russian-Belarusian border can only be done at one of the following airports, open for international transportation:

- Vnukovo;
- Domodedovo;
- Zhukovsky;
- Sheremetyevo.

Crossing the border via a land-based entry point (either by car or rail) shall be considered a violation.

2. Foreign citizens transiting to Russia (with a transfer) via the Republic of Belarus shall be issued a migration card in Belarus prior to their entry to the Russian Federation. Foreign citizens must request a migration card from the border control officer while transiting at an airport in the Republic of Belarus.
